

Die Sabbathi 2 Maii 1646.

An Order of the House of Commons, for the speedy bringing in of the Arrears of the Court of Wards and Liveries to the Receiver Generall of the said Court, to be imployed for the publike service of the Common-wealth.

Ordered by the Commons assembled in Parliament, That the Receiver of the Court of Wards and Liveries doe receive all Moneys upon Bonds entred into, or due before the late Acte or Ordinance passed both Houses, for taking away the said Court; and likewise all Rents due before the said Acte or Ordinance; And all persons who do owe any Moneys or Rents by Bond, or otherwise entred into, or payable before the date of the said late Acte or Ordinance, are hereby required to pay the said Rents and Monies unto the said Receiver: who is hereby required and authorized, to give such Acquittances and Discharges as legally he ought, or might to have done, if the said late Acte or Ordinance for taking away the said Court had not bene passed. And it is hereby further Ordered, That the said Acquittances for Discharges so to be given by the said Receiver, as aforesaid, shall be good and sufficient in Law, to all intents and purposes; to all and every person and persons which shall pay in any Rents or other Moneys to the Receiver of the said Court, for every such sum and sums of Money as shall be paid in by them as aforesaid. And that the parties paying the same shall be respectively saved harmlesse, and kept indemnified, for, or by reason of the respective Rents or sums of Money paid, or to be paid in by them.
